Chairperson's Message

Greetings!! It's almost time for the annual Dallas Labor Day Regional – the first session is Tuesday afternoon on August 27, and we are ready for you! Ed Yetter is my co-chair again this year and I can't imagine a better partner.

We are in our same great location – the four-star Renaissance Dallas Richardson Hotel, now fully renovated. For those who like to commute, we are right on the DART line and the City Line area has a wealth of restaurants. There is a daily buffet in the hotel beginning Wednesday, specially priced for our players, along with sandwiches and salads and snacks in the concession area. And of course, an occasional surprise from us.

There are several new things I'd like to point out to everyone before the first bids are made. This year we are trying something new – the daily bulletin will be all digital. Just be sure that your email is current on the ACBL website and when you wake up the next morning, the bulletin will be available to read while you sip your morning coffee. All players attending who have valid emails will receive a bulletin, courtesy of Unit 176 and The Common Game.

Last year the hotel was able to give us free parking because of all the renovation that was happening in the hotel. It would be wonderful if it happens again, but please don't count on it. Parking is still only $2, so we have a bargain in any case. Just stop at the parking stand in the playing lobby and have your ticket validated each day.

To all our wonderful Novices and our up-and-coming players still under 500 points, be sure to attend the Friday reception immediately following the afternoon session. This event is always fun. Our new venue is wonderful, but I'll save the surprise until then. Watch for notices in the Bulletin. On this same day, our new players with 0-5 MP play free all day!

Credit card machines are back again this year! It's a great way to get your miles and your chance for masterpoints on your plastic!

One last very important item – there is a variance on the ACBL flyer and our flyers in the clubs. On the ACBL page, it states that the break in stratified events for A and B is 3000 points. The CORRECT break is 4000. A is 4000+, B is 1250-4000, and C is 0-1250. Please be sure to help us pass along this information.

We will have surprises for you along the way, so be sure your calendar is full. Food, door prizes, bridge bucks at varying sessions throughout the week, $1 coffee refills, section tops, registration gifts, our great Texas hospitality, our jewelry vendor, and GOLD POINTS! See you at the tables!

Tomi Storey and Ed Yetter, your co-chairs
