“The approach and strategies are very similar in that you gather all the information you can and then keep adding to that base of information as things develop. You do whatever the probabilities indicated based on the knowledge that you have at that time, but you are always willing to modify your behaviour or your approach as you get new information. In bridge, you behave in a way that gets the best from your partner. And in business, you behave in the way that gets the best from your managers and your employees.”

– Warren Buffett (in “Buffet on Bridge”)

Clint Pruett and Cliff Smith New Life Masters

Cliff Smith and I both made Life Master Friday playing in the Swiss. We met in college in 1968 and learned bridge together. We last played in 1969 until last fall when he connected with me after 50 years. We both began to play again after we retired and now we have reached this milestone together. Took a while!
